OFFICE OF THE CONTROLLER OF CIVIL SUPPLIES IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.

Notification, dated 5th December 1948.

No. T. In exercise of the powers conferred on me by Section 32 of the Mysore Cotton Textiles (Control) Order, 1948, I hereby issue the following Instructions to the wholesale and Retail dealers in cloth in Mysore State with regard to the conduct of their business and maintenance of accounts, etc. :—

1. The retail dealers and co-operative societies who are licensed to deal in cloth should adhere to all the conditions specified on the licenses issued to them.

2. Besides, they should exhibit the licenses issued to them in their shops and show them to the Inspecting Officers of the Department when demanded.

3. In all references to the department, the dealers should quote their license number and correct address.

4. The permits issued to retail dealers to purchase cloth from wholesale dealers should not be transferred.

5. The cloth dealers should maintain proper vouchers and accounts in the manner indicated below :—

(i) Stock register showing separately the receipts, issues, and the closing balance. Against receipt they should note the invoice Nos, and against issues the No. of the cash or credit Bill to facilitate easy reference. The closing balance should be struck during the close of each day. The closing balance in the stock register should tally with the balance of goods in stock both in respect of quantity and description.

(ii) References received from the department, Deputy Commissioners and such other officers who would be authorised to supervise distribution of cloth should be properly filed and should be made available to the Inspecting Officers.

(iii)(a) They should issue to their customers printed cash receipts or credit notes as indicated in condition 7 of their license, besides clearly indicating the Ex-Mill rate and the maximum selling rate. Items such as transport charges, Octroi and sales Tax may be shown distinctly.

(b) Against sales effected, the dealers should obtain the signature and the address of the person to whom the cloth is sold.

(iv) They should exhibit two Boards in front of their shops, one showing the variety of cloth in stock with their ex-mill and retail selling rates. In the other board they should show the opening balance, the sales and the closing balance for the previous day. The closing balance of the previous day should be shown as the opening balance during the day, of business.

(v)(a) All the cloth in stock should be visibly displayed to enable consumers to make purchases.

(b) They should not refuse to sell cloth when the cloth is in stock.

(vi) Besides, mill cloth the dealers can sell at present other uncontrolled Textile Goods such as handloom, powerloom, woollen and silk goods. When such goods are sold they should not be forced on the consumers along with Mill cloth or issue such cloth against Mill cloth coupons.

(vii) The retail dealers should furnish their monthly stock statement by the 5th of the succeeding month and forward one copy to the Assistant Inspector of the place and the other to the Inspector of the District and a third copy to the Office of the Controller of Civil Supplies. Retail dealers in Bangalore District (urban) should send such stock statement to the Textile Inspectors in Bangalore and Civil Station and to the Office of the Controller of Civil Supplies.

(viii) The retail dealers should maintain complaint books in their shops which they should make available to the consumers, officers of the department and the members of Taluk and District Committees to enter complaints and remarks.

(ix) They should adhere to the margins of profits and to the maximum selling rates as would be specified from time to time in the Gazette.

NOTE.—Until the cloth coupons are issued to the consumers the licensed cloth dealers in the State are allowed to sell cloth to the consumers not exceeding 5 yards to an individual. The sales should commence with effect from 10th December 1948.

In areas where statutory Food Rationing is in force the dealers should sell cloth to the persons showing the Food Ration cards and enter the quantity sold on such cards. The ration card number should be noted in the cash bill or credit note to facilitate easy checking. In other places where statutory food rationing is not in force cloth may be sold at not more than 5 yards to an individual.

After the introduction of the cloth coupons the following instructions should be followed besides those enumerated above.

(1) The retail dealers should sell mill cloth on presentation of cloth coupon which is valid in the Taluk or City of Issue where his shop is located.

(2) Such coupons should be collected and surrendered to the whole-sale dealer to whom the retail dealer is attached and draw cloth to the extent of the coupons surrendered.

(3) There is no limit for drawing the cloth by a retail licensed dealer against surrender of coupons and will be allowed until the quota of the area is exhausted.

WHOLESALE DEALER.

The coupons surrendered by the retailers attached to the whole-sale dealer should be accounted for to this office. To the extent of the coupons surrendered by the whole-sale dealer, the purchase authority will be issued in his favour to draw further supplies from the procurers (state nominees).
